Case No.: 3:12-cv-2164-GPC-JMA

ORDER:

SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING
REGARDING (1) SUGGESTION OF
SCHOOLER'S DEATH AND (2)
SUBSTITUTION OF PARTY

20 BACKGROUND

21 A. SEC Enforcement Action

22 On January 21, 2016, the Court granted the SEC's motion for final judgment
23 against Defendant Louis V. Schooler. ECF No. 1170. The SEC had initiated this civil 24 action against Defendant Schooler and Western Financial Planning Corporation
25 ("Western") four years earlier, on account of their practice of defrauding investors into 26 purchasing unregistered securities. Id. (citing Second Summary Judgment Order, ECF 27 No. 1081). Thereafter, on February 23, 2016, the Court entered Final Judgment against 28

1 Defendant Schooler pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 58, nunc pro tunc to January 21, 2016.
2 ECF No. 1190.

3 B. Appeal

4 Defendant Schooler appealed the Court’s Final Judgment on February 2, 2016.
5 Dkt. No. 1179. The case is currently before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals as Case
6 No. 16-55167. Id.

7 On October 14, 2016, appellate counsel for Schooler, Philip H. Dyson<sup>1</sup>, submitted
8 a “Suggestion of Death of Defendant Louis V. Schooler; Notice of Motion and Motion to 9 be Relieved as Counsel; Request that an OSC Be Set RE: Dismissal” pursuant to Fed. R.
10 Civ. P. 25(a)(1). Dkt. No. 49-1, Case No. 16-55167. In it, Dyson purported to give 11 “notice of the death of his client, Defendant Louis V. Schooler” and requested to be 12 “relieved as Mr. Schooler’s counsel due to Mr. Schooler’s death.” Id. The filing also 13 requested “that an OSC be set for 120 days from the granting of the withdrawal of Mr.
14 Dyson regarding why this appeal should not be dismissed.” Id.

15 On January 27, 2017, the Ninth Circuit issued an order to show cause why the 16 appeal should not be dismissed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 25(a)(1) in light of the fact that 17 Dyson had filed a formal suggestion of appellant’s death. On February 17, 2017,
18 Appellant’s brother, E. Andrew Schooler, filed a memorandum showing cause why the 19 case should not be dismissed. Dkt. No. 57, Case No. 16-55167. E. Schooler’s response 20 stated that he was a successor to appellant under the laws of intestate succession and 21 objected to Dyson’s formal suggestion of appellant’s death, which, he noted, had been 22 improperly served under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. Id. E. Schooler’s response to the OSC was 23 submitted by Bryan C. Vess, who indicated that has was counsel for Defendant-
24 Appellant. Id.

28 <sup>1</sup> Dyson, as stated below, was also Schooler’s counsel in the proceedings before this Court.

1 On April 19, 2017, the Ninth Circuit remanded Case No. 16-55167 to the district
2 court “to determine whether appellant [Louis Schooler] should be considered deceased
3 for purposes of this litigation and, if so, whether there exists a personal representative of 4 appellant, or other appropriate person, who may be substituted for appellant.” Dkt. No.
5 1471.

6 C. Post-Judgment Proceedings in District Court

7 Months before the Ninth Circuit remanded the case for these limited purposes, this
8 Court had denied Dyson’s motion to suggest the death of Louis Schooler. Dkt. No. 1409.
9 The motion filed with this Court purported to “formally notice” the death of his client,
10 Louis Schooler, and requested that Dyson, accordingly, be relieved as counsel. Dkt. No.
11 1384 at 2. While the submission cited to Rule 25 as legal authority for the suggestion of 12 death, the motion did not seek to substitute any representative or administrator of 13 Schooler’s estate as a party to appear in the post-judgment proceedings before this 14 Court.<sup>2</sup> The SEC, likewise, did not move to substitute any individual as a party in its 15 opposition to the suggestion of Schooler’s death.

16 The Court declined to notice Schooler’s death due, in large part, to the lack of 17 information before the Court. Dkt. No. 1384. Dyson had stated that Schooler had died in 18 Tahiti aboard a 42-foot boat. Id. at 5-6. In support of that statement, Dyson had included
19 what he purported to be Schooler’s death certificate, as issued by Tahitian authorities.
20 Dkt. No. 1384-2 at 12. The death certificate was written in French and was accompanied
21 by a “Google Translation” of the certificate. Id. at 6-12. The SEC opposed Dyson’s
22 suggestion of death because the circumstances of Schooler’s death were “still under 23 investigation” and because the copy of the certificate “appeared to be provisional.” Dkt.
24 No. 1398 at 2. Accordingly, and given the uncertainty surrounding Schooler’s alleged 25 death, the Court denied Dyson’s suggestion of Schooler’s death. Dkt. No. 1409. The 26

27
28 <sup>2</sup> Rule 25, entitled “Substitution of Parties,” allows for substitution of parties in the case of death, incompetency, transfer of interest, or changes in public office. Fed. R. Civ. P. 25.

1 Court also, at that time, denied Dyson's motion to be relieved as counsel because the sole
2 reason offered was Schooler's death. Id.

3 Dyson renewed his motion to be relieved as counsel the same day that the Court
4 issued the above order. In it, he argued that he had good cause to withdraw as counsel
5 because had had not heard from Schooler in five months despite attempts to contact him.
6 Dkt. No. 1401-1 at 3. The Court granted Dyson's motion on February 2, 2017. Dkt. No.
7 1440. The Court noted in its order that its decision was based on the Ninth Circuit's
8 recent decision to relieve Dyson on Schooler's appeal. Dkt. No. 1440.

9 DISCUSSION

10 The facts before this Court regarding the circumstances of Schooler's death have 11 not changed since the Court issued its order, on November 29, 2016, denying the request
12 to notice Schooler's death.

13 The Court observes that this lack of information is due, in whole or in part, to the 14 fact that Schooler is no longer represented by counsel before this Court. The Court
15 relieved Philip Dyson of his duties on February 2, 2017 and, since that time, there has 16 been no other appearance by a lawyer or personal representative on Schooler's behalf.
17 The Court observes, however, that Schooler appears to be represented by counsel on his 18 appeal before the Ninth Circuit. A Notice of Appearance of Counsel issued by the Ninth
19 Circuit's Clerk's Office on February 17, 2017, indicates that Bryan C. Vess is 20 representing Schooler on appeal in Case No. 16-55167. Dkt. No. 55, No. 16-55167.

21 Accordingly and given the Ninth Circuit's directive to "determine whether 22 appellant should be considered deceased for purposes of this litigation and, if so, whether 23 there exists a personal representative of appellant, or other appropriate person, who may 24 be substituted for appellant," the Court requests that Schooler's Appellate Counsel and 25 any other interested party submit supplemental briefing addressing (1) the 26 circumstances of Schooler's death and (2) whether there is any personal representative to 27 be substituted as a party for Schooler in the actions before the district and appellate court.
28 The Court requests that such supplemental briefing include any facts, evidence, or

1 argument that may assist the Court in responding to the Ninth Circuit's directives. The 2 Court will expect a response on or before July 14, 2017.

3 The Court further ORDERS that the SEC submit supplemental briefing addressing
4 these same issues: namely, (1) whether Schooler's death should be noticed for purposes
5 of this litigation and (2) whether there is an appropriate individual to be substituted for 6 Schooler. The SEC stated in its opposition to Dyson's suggestion of death that 7 Schooler's death was "still under investigation" and that the death certificate was 8 "provisional." Dkt. No. 1384. Given that the SEC made these statements over six 9 months ago, the Court orders the SEC to supplement these proffers with any new 10 information obtained and with details about what, if any, steps it has taken to confirm 11 Schooler's death. The SEC's response shall be filed on or before July 14, 2017.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
